

- 1 When is the first dose and the second dose of measles given to children ?
- 1 Present two examples of how a fabric is chosen according to the purpose it has to serve.
- 3 Draw suitable symbols for 'iron with moderate iron' and 'dry in shade' on the label of a shirt.
- 4 Mention one benefit and one drawback of investing in shares.
- 5 mark should you look for while buying wheat flour ? How can you identify that this mark is not fake ?
- 6 What four features would you check to ensure that the placket of your readymade skirt is of good quality ?
7. List any four unforeseen expenses for which your savings can come handy.
- 8 Three-year-old Tracy and six-month-old Mini are feeling afraid. State two ways each by which they could express their emotions.
- 9 Kavita, a graduate in Food and Nutrition, is good in designing. In what four ways can she use her knowledge and creativity in her own business ?
- 10 List two malpractices a milkman can adopt to deceive his consumers. Mention two of your responsibilities in this context.

State four reasons why women who regularly visit an ICDS centre are likely to be healthy.

12

Mention four things you will check to ensure physical safety of your three-year-old child in a crèche.

13

The chana dal leaves too much colour when washed. What could be the reason for this ? Write three health hazards of consuming such pulses.

14

Apart from buying reputed brands from reputed shops, what four precautions would you adopt to buy unadulterated black pepper powder ?

15. Your family income can be increased by reducing your personal expenses. Support this statement with four examples.

16

State any four drawbacks if members of a family do not maintain a record of their domestic expenses.

17

Swati is designing a sari and blouse for a woman who has heavy hips. Suggest to her how she can use all the four elements of design while designing this dress.

18.

—

Upasana is wearing a salwar kameez. State two ways each by which you can check harmony and balance in this dress.

19

After six months, when Neetu took out her woollen shawls from a box, she found them damaged. List four possible reasons that could have led to this damage.

20

Four-month-old Mohan's cognitive, social and motor abilities are similar to that of an average child. Support this statement with the help of two examples each.

21

Write three specific symptoms each of mumps and whooping cough which help a doctor differentiate between these two diseases.

23

Apart from removing when fresh, what other six precautions would you adopt while using chemicals to remove stains from an expensive dress ?

23

Sunita is an athlete and lives in a coastal area with her aged parents. Explain any six factors that would influence the meal planning of this family.

24.

What six desirable hygienic rules would you propose to a roadside vendor selling cooked food ?

25

The potable water that looked clear, was declared unsafe by the authorities. State any two reasons for this. How will you educate the public to use alum for making this water potable ?

26

3
Your brother earns ` 5 lakh per annum. You have suggested to him to either invest in NSC or Fixed Deposit scheme. List six similarities between these two schemes.

27

Sudhir's both legs are paralysed. His parents want him to study in a regular school. Which eight specific arrangements would have to be made in the school to take care of his needs ?

28

Specify the amounts of any four additional nutrients required by women during lactation. Suggest four modifications in a meal of dosa and coconut chutney in order to fulfil these nutritional needs.

29

Your younger brother is going to a hostel. Tell him the necessary precautions he should take while washing, rinsing, drying and ironing his coloured silk T-shirt.

30

Give eight benefits of Consumer Protection Act for the consumers.

69

7

3,000