CIRCULAR

It is informed to all stakeholders that the online application for submitting requests to obtain scanned copies of Class XII answer books is presently facing technical glitches.

A team of experts is addressing the problem, and the application is expected to be live by 02.00 PM today. We request your patience and cooperation in this regard.

To ensure that students seeking scanned copies of their answer books for grievance redressal be given the priority, they are requested to avail the facility first once the application resumes.

Students who wish to obtain scanned copies for archival purposes will be provided the opportunity immediately after the current process of re-evaluation is completed. We kindly request such students to wait until the facility is made available.

Your cooperation is sincerely solicited, with the assurance that all students will be provided the requisite opportunity in due course.
