11TH CHAPTER OF

IISMUN'26

“ORATION TO COMPEL,

DEVOTION TO REBEL”

Opening Ceremony

The auditorium was buzzing. Blazers on, nerves alive, IISMUN'26 was ready to begin and so was every delegate in that room.

Secretary General Angel Agrawal took the stage and set the tone instantly. Warm, energetic, and utterly convincing, she reminded every delegate that MUN is where future global leaders find their footing and that this conference, is their first step toward that horizon.

Then the Principal stepped forward beaming with pride, brimming with encouragement and declared IISMUN'26 officially open to a wave of applause. Just like that, committees were calling. The 11th chapter had begun, and nobody could wait to get started.

UNSC

Agenda: Addressing the Escalating Conflict in the Indo-Pacific: Territorial Disputes, Militarisation, and the Threat to Regional Peace and Security

The Security Council tackled the Indo-Pacific's boiling tensions with sharp motions, fierce caucuses, and bloc negotiations that kept every delegate on their toes.

UNODC

Agenda: Combating the Rise of Synthetic Drugs and Dark Web Trafficking: Strengthening International Legal Frameworks

Delegates went after one of the world's most elusive crises — synthetic drugs and dark web trafficking — with pointed debate and bold working paper proposals.

UNGA-DISEC

Agenda: Regulating the Development and Proliferation of Autonomous Weapon Systems (AWS) and Lethal Autonomous Robots (LARs)

Can a machine decide who lives? DISEC took that question head-on, with delegates raising motion after motion to wrestle one of the most complex agendas of the conference.

The debate was fierce, the ideas were bold, and the final draft left no one indifferent.

UNHRC

Agenda: Addressing Systemic Discrimination and State-Sponsored Violence Against Ethnic and Religious Minorities

UNHRC delegates crossed bloc lines and initiated some of the most genuine conversations of the conference to address discrimination and state-sponsored violence.

The resolution that came out of this room had both heart and precision – exactly what the agenda asked for.

Theme: “Information in the Age of Conflict – Reporting Responsibly in a Polarised World”

The press team was everywhere – reporting, interviewing, debating editorial choices – giving IISMUN’26 its voice in real time. Their work proved that telling the truth responsibly is one of the hardest, most important jobs in the room.

Caricature

Journalism

Photography

AIPPM

Agenda: Deliberation Upon Roadmap to Viksit Bharat 2047

India's political parties clashed and collaborated over the Viksit Bharat 2047 vision in a committee that was loud, passionate, and thoroughly alive.

IPL

Agenda: Balancing Player Welfare, Auction Dynamics, and Commercialisation in the Indian Premier League

Cricket, commerce, and sharp debate collided as delegates representing franchises, players, and broadcasters negotiated the soul of the IPL. Creative, well-argued, and full of energy – this committee proved sport is never just sport.
